

REMARKS

Responsive to the restriction notice dated June 3, 2005 received in the above application, Applicants hereby elect the claims of Group II (claims 9-15) to be maintained in this application for examination.

Amendment of the specification

The specification has been amended to correct a typographical error wherein a "+" symbol was omitted in the description of the shape of the supporting spacer. It is respectfully submitted that this amendment does not introduce new matter, because the "+" shape of the supporting spacer is readily apparent from Fig. 3.
